WORK OF BOLD HIGHWAYMEN

Two Tough Citizens Hold Up a Hansom Park Street Car.

GO THROUGH THE POCKETS OF CONDUCTOR

Secure Twenty-Six Dollars and Make Their Escape in the Darkness—Wild Gun Play by One of the Robbers.

A bold and successful holdup occurred on a Hansom park street car shortly before midnight last night at Twenty-ninth and Dupont street, the southern terminus of the line. The train crew, consisting of Conductor W. H. Walker and Motorman Louis Hanson, had turned the car around and were awaiting their scheduled time of departure on the trip home. Walker was seated on the front seat counting his night's receipts and Hanson was lounging in the seat behind him. John P. Carr, 3523 Franklin street, boarded the car as it turned and was sitting in a rear seat. He had noticed two men of rough appearance a short distance before they reached the corner and had taken the center of the street to avoid them. The car was an open one and a large electric light hanging at the intersection of the streets made the interior very light.

MAKING NEW FIGURES

and barley. The corn, however, is his pride and joy and he is showing some that makes that big corn from Texas feel small. Stalks nineteen feet high are shown. They are well cared, some of the ears starting out as high as ten feet from the ground.

Governor Northern's Notion.

Governor W. J. Northern of Georgia writes an interesting letter to the Atlanta Constitution in which he discusses some of the ideas that he gathered at the exposition. In his opinion one great purpose of the show is to solve the question how best to seek investments and he comments on the variety of methods adopted by communities and individuals to get their wares before the public. He also refers to the great number of congresses and conventions that occur in connection with the exposition, but is evidently not entirely pleased with the idea that he heard advanced at the White and Colored American Congress. His understanding is that when the colored orators spoke of personal liberty they spoke of social equality. In this connection he predicts that the north and west are now entering on an era in their history that they will sometime seek in vain to remedy. He says that the discussion of "social equality" questions is having its legitimate effect in attracting the negroes from the south to such localities as guarantee them this distinction. Since 1860 the colored population of Nebraska has increased from eighty-two to 9,000, Kansas from 67 to 55,000, Iowa from 1,000 to 11,000, Michigan from 7,000 to 15,000 and Indiana from 11,000 to 45,000. He advises the southern people to sit still and wait while the north solves the race problem by turning over all objectionable classes of negroes to be transformed into "white folks" by those white people who invite them to "social equality."

To Help Poor Children.

The Board of Women Managers is considering a plan to give a day's holiday at the exposition to the children of Lincoln and one or two other large cities who could not afford to take advantage of the children's excursion. It has been suggested that aside from the big crowd of children that was brought up from Lincoln Thursday there are several hundred youngsters in that city who were unable to come because they did not have the money. It is now proposed to give them a free trip some time next month. The expense will not be great and it is believed that with very little effort enough funds can be raised among the business men of Lincoln to serve the purpose. President Sawyer and Secretary Ford of the women's board will take the matter up as soon as the pending excursion is out of the way and with a trifling assistance from the Lincoln people they believe the idea can be successfully carried out.

Close Up the Old Plantation.

The Old Plantation, the darkey show on the Midway, is in the hands of the exposition and the voice of the pastor of Mount Nebo chapel is no longer heard in the land. The grand finale came yesterday afternoon when the concessionaire refused to square his account that has been running during the last two months.

MAN ASSAULTED AND ROBBED

Oscar Lundstrom is Knocked Down and Relieved of His Money, Amounting to $5.25.

Oscar Lundstrom, 913 South Thirteenth street, was assaulted and robbed at 1 o'clock this morning as he was passing along the railroad tracks between the Tenth and the Thirtieth street viaducts. Lundstrom had spent the evening with friends near Tenth and Harney streets and was walking home alone. He crossed the Tenth street viaduct to the Union Pacific depot, where he took a short cut along the tracks. He had only gone a short distance when he met two men, who sprang upon him without ceremony. Lundstrom was thrown to the ground and one of the footpads held him while the other rifled his pockets, securing $5.25. In return for the slight resistance he had made the robbers then kicked Lundstrom brutally in the stomach and head until he became unconscious. When he regained consciousness Lundstrom's assailants were nowhere to be seen and he painfully made his way to the police station to report the occurrence. His shirt was torn and he was covered with dust and scratches from his struggle against the cinders. There were also severe bruises on his body.

Library Board's Business.

A regular meeting of the library board was held at the Public Library last evening, all members being present. A report of the recent attempted burglary of the Byron Reed collection was made and additional precautions against another attempt were ordered. They will include a new burglar alarm. The monthly reports and bills to the amount of $1,092.30 were received and approved. A question of establishing delivery stations about the city was discussed and the matter was referred to the book committee.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage license was issued by County Judge Baxter yesterday: Name and Residence. Age. George E. Williams, Des Moines, Ia., 27; Nettie Q. Howard, Chariton, Ia., 27.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

H. C. Chapin of Minneapolis, president of the Chapin Publishing company, is in the city on a flying trip to the exposition, with a view to preparing a special article on the big fair. Mr. Chapin is one of the old time newspaper men of the Flour City, having "done time" on most of the dailies of that enterprising town. Some six years ago he quit the daily grind and branched out for himself and is now at the head of a thriving concern that is putting a stake in his pockets. He speaks in the highest terms of the exposition and like many others is surprised at its magnitude. As an illustration of the resources and enterprise of the west, Mr. Chapin says the fair is unequalled. After leaving a special article in The Bee office last night he dropped into the office of Mr. Chapin says there will be a large attendance from Minnesota during the next two months. He returns to Minneapolis tonight.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Alexander Majors, an old time Nebraskaan, but now making his headquarters at Denver, is visiting in the city. If he lives till October 4 he will be 84 years of age. He came to the east side of the Missouri river when a boy and looked over into what is now St. Louis, Mo. He was then a town of about 4,000 inhabitants, with the river ferried by a flat boat manned by three Frenchmen. A few years ago he visited the spot again and a fashionably dressed man came by. Mr. Majors spoke to him and told of his experience there in the years ago and was told that with the development which has since taken place the traffic now carried over the river in one day could not be handled by the three Frenchmen with their flat boat in 100 years.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

General Sessions of Minneapolis, Minn., special sales agent of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron company, was in the city during the past week visiting the Frank L. Gregory, local agent for the eastern firm. He is more than delighted with the exposition and remained three days longer than he had intended in order to see the entire show. Mr. Sessions said that he came here with the idea that it was along the line of a state fair and his surprise at the grandeur and success of the exposition was beyond his greatest expectations. He said if eastern people only knew what it really was and could get cheap rates that the city would be filled with easterners every day.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Albert Kinsler left yesterday on a short northern trip. Walter Johnson, editor of the Rock Island Union, is in the city visiting the exposition. Judge Kirkpatrick of Lincoln is in the city to attend a meeting of the State Fish Commission. George P. Phillips of Reading, Pa., who is largely interested in the mines of that state, is in Omaha.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Baxter, chief clerk at the customs office on the exposition grounds, with his wife, has returned from a visit to Denver and Manitou. Mrs. De Forrest Richards of Douglas, wife of the republican candidate for governor in Wyoming, is a visitor in the city and is registered at the Millard.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Edward Swobe, formerly of Omaha and now a resident in the city, is in the city on his way to Denver to attend the wedding of Lester Bridgman, who used to reside here. Mr. Harry Mollring, a prominent young business man and member of the firm of Mollring Bros. of Alliance, Neb., is enjoying a brief sojourn to the Exposition City.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Euclid Martin has gone to Chicago to meet the members of his family who are returning from North Weymouth, Mass., where they have been spending the summer. They will reach home today. Robert Oberfelder of Sidney, Neb., is in the city to attend a meeting of the Nebraska Fish Commission. He will leave for New York and attend some departmental work which he has so long been a part, and to spend a few days with Buffalo Bill, who will be here next week. Mr. Majors looks upon himself as the foster father of Colonel Cody. The latter came to Mr. Majors when 9 years old, looking for work, and was employed as a messenger, in which service he gave eminent satisfaction, so much so that the two men have been fast friends to the present day.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Major A. R. Anderson, ex-congressman from Iowa, but now residing at Hot Springs, S. D., stopped over in Omaha on his return from the republican state convention at Mitchell, S. D. Mr. Anderson is now an enthusiastic republican and thinks there is a bright prospect for redeeming his state from the populists. He said a letter was read at the convention from H. L. Loucks, the father of the populist party in South Dakota, in which he declared his opposition to fastidious republicans and thinks there is a bright prospect for redeeming his state from the populists. HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

"Is there a justice of the peace here?" was the anxious inquiry a man made of C. W. Allen, chief messenger at the old postoffice building. "No; this is a government building," replied Mr. Allen.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

"Yes, I can get you one here," responded Mr. Allen, "but what do you want?" "I want to be married," said the inquirer, "and that right away," at the same time calling the prospective bride to come in from the hallway.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Mr. Allen explained for Justice Foster to come over immediately, and also mentioned all the young women in the building to come in as witnesses of the event. When Mr. Foster arrived he performed the ceremony in the midst of a distinguished assembly of government employes, which united for life James Flynn and Florence J. Adams, both of Omaha.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Too Much Water in Ponce. PONCE, Porto Rico, Aug. 26.—A deluge from the mountain today flooded the river and the bridge between the town and fort broke into a trunk which prevented General Miles' attending a reception given in his honor by Porto Ricans at the leading club tonight and will probably cause much inconvenience for the transportation of troops which are returning home. Several camps were washed out.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

"Tribby" is a big drawing card at the Creighton hotel. The house has been packed at every performance. The production is excellent and worthy of the splendid attendance. Last two performances today at 2:30 and 8:30.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Under a bond of $500, with Oliver Ames as surety, Judge Schlaugh has allowed Andrew Simpson and Ole Johnson to enjoy work and liberty for the time being. They are held in the district court for the alleged larceny of $50 from Carl Olson.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

T. C. Haley, a stranger, is under arrest at the central station charged with having broken into a trunk belonging to a girl named Lena, who lives over at a saloon on the corner of Thirtieth and Howard streets, and robbing her of $50. Thirty dollars in money was found in Haley's pockets.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Because of "jealousy," "an ungovernable temper" and "abandonment" for the last two years Meredith W. Corwin asks for a divorce from his wife, Hannah, whom he married in St. Paul, Minn., in the winter of 1872. Five children, the oldest 22 years and the youngest 9, have not bound the divorce together.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Irish-American Transmississippi Exposition met last night in the Ball Room and discussed several questions. General club. It was decided to allow a dramatic club to use the Hall for work for the summer. Several resolutions regarding the Peace Jubilee were adopted by different members, but were not decided to hold entertainment once each week until the exposition
